Observation of Raksha Bandhan

August 12, 2022

The institution has organized a cultural ceremony to celebrate the inauguration of the anthology of critical essays entitled Bangla O Bangalir Krishti-Aitijhya: A Diachronic Cultural Study, published by the institution. The book was formally inaugurated by eminent painter Sri Hariprasad Medda, who spoke on the importance of studying our cultural heritage on the eve of the commemoration of 75 years of independence. The programme began with an opening song by the students of the institution. Dr. Mausumi Ghosh, Principal has delivered the welcome address. She spoke on the necessity of such an endeavour to celebrate our culturally enriched past. Mr. Jagabandhu Ghosh, President of the Governing Body, expressed his hearty congratulations to the teachers and non-teaching employees for their efforts to make the programme a grand success. The programme was coordinated by Mr. Subham Amin, Assistant Professor, Department of English.
