Dear All

Principal's Desk

Welcome to the Elysium, the Second issue of the Newsletter of Sri Ramkrishna Sarada Vidya Mahapitha Kamarpukur. It is an immense pleasure for us to have this digital platform to share our happiness which is a cumulative effect of the achievements of our students, faculties and staff during the second month of the New Year 2024. One cannot but commend the contributors for their stimulated thoughts and congratulate the editor and the editorial team. I pray that the Elysium becomes the kindly light that beacons us along the tao of existence across the encircling gloom.

Ring out the old, ring in the new.

Slices of Campus life:

Homage to the Holy Thakur and Maa

Saraswati Puja,
14-15 February, 2024

Editor's Desk

As the serene winter gives way to vernal milieu, the campus begins to throb with renewed pulsations of life. Examinations kept all of us occupied in invigilation rooms, and a sombre seriousness pervades in the campus with occasional thud of alphabets filling up the empty spaces of the answer scripts. However, the endeavour of the institution to promote activities beyond the curriculum goes on. After all, all work and no play make Jack a dull boy!
